By signing above, you agree to be enrolled in the selected Mortgage Banking Bound Program level, subject to the terms and conditions below.

MORTGAGE BANKING BOUND TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Unless renewed, participation in the Mortgage Banking Bound (MBB) Program will expire six months from the date signed above. At the end of any six month cycle, all unused course enrollments and job postings will expire and may not be used after the end of the cycle. Course registrations completed prior to the end of the six month cycle for classes that occur after expiration of the cycle may be used by the registered student. Job postings made prior to the end of any cycle will be allowed to run their course even after expiration of the cycle. Renewals may be made upon mutual agreement of Company and MBA.

2. MBB classes will be held pursuant to the schedule set forth, and periodically updated, on the MBB web site. (mortgagebankingbound.com). To enroll students in a class, registration information for class participants must be provided to MBA no later than five days before the class begins in order to allow for processing and distribution of login information to students.

3. MBA will provide course Certificates of Completion to Company upon request.

4. Job postings may be made at any time while Company’s participation in the Program remains current, subject to the job posting limit dictated by the selected Participation Level. Postings will be in the format specified by MBA. Each posting will expire and be removed from the site thirty days from its posting date or can be removed earlier at the request of the company.

5. Virtual Career Fairs will be held by MBA at the schedule determined by MBA in its sole discretion. MBA will expend reasonable marketing efforts for each Virtual Career Fair but does not guarantee a specific level of attendance. Gold Level participants are guaranteed a booth space.

6. In connection with job postings and career fairs, MBA makes no representation or warranty as to the quality of the candidates or that the candidates presented will be appropriate for Company. MBA does not endorse or screen any candidates and any hiring by Company will be at Company's sole discretion and risk.

7. The placement, form, content, appearance, and all other aspects of sponsorship MBB course offerings shall be determined by MBA in its sole discretion, which determination shall not be unreasonable. Company understands that it may not be the sole sponsor of any instance of the public offerings of the MBB course.

8. Company shall provide to MBA all necessary logos and other information, content and materials (in printed, electronic and/or other form) for use in connection with its sponsorship of the MBB courses and such other uses of the logo that are to be made in accordance with the MBB Program. All uses of such logos and other information, content and materials shall be determined by MBA in its sole discretion within the confines of the MBB program.

9. MBA's attendance at college career fairs will be non-exclusive and at the sole discretion of MBA based on availability and resources. Any participating member who would like MBA to attend a specific college career fair must so notify MBA at least 20 days in advance of fair date. MBA will not exclusively promote individual companies at college fairs and all participating companies will be represented equally in its conversations and promotional materials.

10. Members requesting private MBB courses will need to do so outside of the terms of this enrollment form, based on the availability of MBA Education and subject to additional fees.

11. MBA will participate in joint and Company exclusive information sessions to help promote the benefits of the MBB course and job opportunities at Company. With 20 days’ prior notice and for a fee of $500 per information session, MBA will participate in up to two sessions for Silver participants and up to six sessions for Gold participants. The fee will cover all travel related costs for MBA staff as well as MBA staff time to support the event. Company will keep MBA apprised of anticipated attendance at such sessions and MBA reserves the right to cancel, with notice to and consultation with Company, in the event that the projected attendance at a scheduled information session does not meet or exceed 20 participants.

12. Company hereby grants MBA a limited, non-exclusive, revocable license to use its name, acronym, and logo in accordance with the terms set forth herein for the purpose of identifying and acknowledging Company’s sponsorship of the MBB courses, including in the career fair promotional materials, posting on the MBA website and such other uses as are contemplated by the MBB Program.

13. Company agrees to work with MBA, at MBA's request, to provide testimonials and other promotion for the MBB Program.

14. To be entitled to the applicable benefits at the selected participation level, payment must be made in advance. No enrollments in the Mortgage Banking Bound (MBB) course or participation in the job board (or the virtual job fair, if applicable) will be permitted until full payment of the specified fee is made.
