MORTGAGE BANKERS ASSOCIATION

MBA SPEAKERS BUREAU

Teresa Betz

Vice President, Operations, MBA
Chief Operating Officer, MBA Opens Doors Foundation

Teresa Betz serves as the Vice President of Operations at the Mortgage Bankers Association and has been with the MBA for nearly four decades. In this role, Betz oversees and manages all day-to-day MBA operations, including office space, lease negotiations, security, risk management, emergency preparedness/safety, purchasing, procurement, and production.

Betz also serves as the Chief Operating Officer of the MBA Opens Doors Foundation (ODF), primarily responsible for internal operations such as the facilitation of grants to families and the maintenance of relationships with the Foundation's hospital affiliates. In collaboration with the President Deb Still, Betz assists in defining hospital strategy and long-term goals for ODF. She works with the President and ODF's Board of Directors seek funding for the Foundation's Home Grant Program.

She also coordinates many of MBA's philanthropic endeavors. This includes programming with Habitat for Humanity, DC Rebuilding Together projects and tutoring programs for DC Elementary Schools, among others.

The Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA) is the national association representing the real estate finance industry, an industry that employs more than 280,000 people in virtually every community in the country. Headquartered in Washington, D.C., the association works to ensure the continued strength of the nation's residential and commercial real estate markets, to expand homeownership, and to extend access to affordable housing to all Americans. MBA promotes fair and ethical lending practices and fosters professional excellence among real estate finance employees through a wide range of educational programs and a variety of publications. Its membership of over 2,200 companies includes all elements of real estate finance: mortgage companies, mortgage brokers, commercial banks, thrifts, REITs, Wall Street conduits, life insurance companies, and others in the mortgage lending field.
