MORTGAGE BANKERS ASSOCIATION

MBA SPEAKERS BUREAU

Dan Fichtler

Associate Vice President of Housing Finance Policy

Dan Fichtler is Associate Vice President of Housing Finance Policy at the Mortgage Bankers Association. In this role, he is responsible for developing MBA's policy work related to loan production issues, including the government housing programs operated by FHA, VA, and USDA, as well as secondary and capital markets issues, including agency and non-agency securities markets and the activities of FHFA, Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, Ginnie Mae, and the Federal Home Loan Banks. He also serves as the lead staff representative for MBA's Residential Board of Governors.

Prior to joining MBA, Dan was a policy advisor at the U.S. Department of the Treasury, where he served on the staff of the Financial Stability Oversight Council. He has also served as an advisor to the majority staff of the Senate Banking Committee, during which time he helped draft the Johnson-Crapo housing finance reform legislation.

Dan holds a Bachelor's degree in economics and political science from Colgate University and a Master's in Public Affairs from the Woodrow Wilson School at Princeton University.

The Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA) is the national association representing the real estate finance industry, an industry that employs more than 280,000 people in virtually every community in the country. Headquartered in Washington, D.C., the association works to ensure the continued strength of the nation's residential and commercial real estate markets, to expand homeownership, and to extend access to affordable housing to all Americans. MBA promotes fair and ethical lending practices and fosters professional excellence among real estate finance employees through a wide range of educational programs and a variety of publications. Its membership of over 2,200 companies includes all elements of real estate finance: mortgage companies, mortgage brokers, commercial banks, thrifts, REITs, Wall Street conduits, life insurance companies, and others in the mortgage lending field.
