MORTGAGE BANKERS ASSOCIATION

MBA SPEAKERS BUREAU

Rick Hill

Vice President of Industry Technology
Mortgage Bankers Association

Rick Hill serves as Vice President of Industry Technology at the Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA). In this role, he is responsible for providing leadership to MBA and its membership relating to operational and technology topics faced by the industry, including through the Mortgage Industry Standards Maintenance Organization (MISMO), which he oversees. He is also responsible for developing the content for MBA's Technology Conference and leading all of MBA's technology forums and working groups - both residential and commercial/multifamily - as well as managing technology related content for MBA Education.

Rick most recently served as MBA's Associate Vice President of Industry Technology. Prior to joining MBA in 2010, Rick was the Director of Data Strategy at Fannie Mae where he was responsible for data standards and best practices, data management including the company's data warehouse, and managing the relationship with regulatory agencies relating to information requirements. Before his time at Fannie Mae, he was a senior auditor with Deloitte & Touche.

He holds a BBA in Accounting from the College of William and Mary and is also a Certified Public Accountant.

The Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA) is the national association representing the real estate finance industry, an industry that employs more than 280,000 people in virtually every community in the country. Headquartered in Washington, D.C., the association works to ensure the continued strength of the nation's residential and commercial real estate markets, to expand homeownership, and to extend access to affordable housing to all Americans. MBA promotes fair and ethical lending practices and fosters professional excellence among real estate finance employees through a wide range of educational programs and a variety of publications. Its membership of over 2,200 companies includes all elements of real estate finance: mortgage companies, mortgage brokers, commercial banks, thrifts, REITs, Wall Street conduits, life insurance companies, and others in the mortgage lending field.
