

MBA[®]

MORTGAGE BANKERS ASSOCIATION

MBA SPEAKERS BUREAU

Lynn Fisher, Ph.D.

Vice President of Research and Economics

Lynn Fisher serves as Vice President of Research and Economics of the Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA). In this role, she is responsible for managing MBA's economic and mortgage originations forecasts and developing analysis on issues of importance to the mortgage industry.

Lynn also serves as the Executive Director of MBA's Research Institute for Housing America (RIHA), the Association's 503(c)(3) dedicated to encouraging and aiding – through grants and sponsored research to distinguished scholars, educational institutions, research facilities, and government organizations – the pursuit of knowledge of mortgage markets and real estate finance.

Prior to MBA, Lynn served as Associate Professor of Real Estate and the David D. and Carol Ann Flanagan Scholar at the Kenan-Flagler School of Business at the University of North Carolina, and on the faculty at Massachusetts Institute of Technology's Department of Urban Studies and Planning and the Center for Real Estate. At MIT, she was director of the MIT/CRE Housing Affordability Initiative. She received her Ph.D. in business administration from Pennsylvania State University, where she concentrated in real estate finance and microeconomics. She has an MS in business administration and a BA in international politics, also from Penn State.

Lynn's academic research has focused primarily on home ownership, housing affordability, and mortgage financing. Her academic work has been featured in American Economic Journal: Economic Policy, The Journal of Urban Economics, Real Estate Economics, and The Journal of Real Estate Finance and Economics.

The Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA) is the national association representing the real estate finance industry, an industry that employs more than 280,000 people in virtually every community in the country. Headquartered in Washington, D.C., the association works to ensure the continued strength of the nation's residential and commercial real estate markets; to expand homeownership and extend access to affordable housing to all Americans. MBA promotes fair and ethical lending practices and fosters professional excellence among real estate finance employees through a wide range of educational programs and a variety of publications. Its membership of over 2,200 companies includes all elements of real estate finance: mortgage companies, mortgage brokers, commercial banks, thrifts, REITs, Wall Street conduits, life insurance companies and others in the mortgage lending field. For additional information, visit MBA's Web site: www.mba.org.