

---

MORTGAGE BANKERS ASSOCIATION

News and Activity Related to Remote Online Notarization

2021-2023

- September 30, 2023: California Governor Newsom signs RON bill (SB 696). While this bill delays California-commissioned notaries from performing RON transactions, it does retain out-of-state RON notary recognition.
- June 12, 2023: Connecticut Governor signs RON bill (SB-1040), but is first state in the nation to specifically exclude real estate finance transactions.
- March 29, 2023: Massachusetts Governor signs FY2023 appropriations bill (Chapter 2 of the Acts of 2023) that includes a provision allowing remote online notarization (Sections 22-29).
- October 7, 2022: DC Council implements legislation (B24-0457) that will permit RON in the District of Columbia.
- September 9, 2022: Delaware Governor John Carney signed legislation (SB 262), which will permanently allow the use of remote online notarization (RON) in real estate financial transactions.
- August 18, 2022: Real Clear Policy Op-Ed from Allied Trade Associations Supporting Nationwide RON Legislation: Congress Should Modernize Notarization for Homebuyers & Other Americans.
- June 30, 2022: Rhode Island Governor Dan McKee signed legislation (H7363) making remote online notarization available to the state.
- April 21, 2022: Maine Governor Janet Mills signed legislation (LD2023), which will permanently allow remote online notarization (RON) for real estate financial transactions in the state.
- December 22, 2021: Governor Hochul Signs Legislation to Permit the Utilization of RON, Chapter Amendment Planned to add Credential Analysis and Papering Out Language.

- September 24, 2021: MBA submits letter to North Carolina legislators urging them to support legislation (H776) consistent with the national standard for RON adoption.
- September 23, 2021: U.S. House passes the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) with language consistent with the SECURE Act, which is supported by MBA and would permit the use of RON nationwide.
- July 14, 2021: MBA submits comment letter to Wyoming Secretary of State to urge him to promulgate credential analysis standards consistent with national consensus.
- July 1, 2021: MBA sends letter to the New York Secretary of State urging them to implement rules consistent with MISMO and national standard.
- June 28, 2021: Illinois Legislature passes legislation (SB2664) to enable RON. Sends the bill to Governor Pritzker for signature.
- June 21, 2021: New Jersey Legislature passes legislation (A4250) to allow RON.
- June 15, 2021: Oregon Governor Brown signs RON legislation (SB765)
- May 10, 2021: New York Legislature passes legislation (S1780) that would enable RON. Sends legislation to Governor for signature.
- April 29, 2021: Arkansas Governor signs legislation (SB340) to allow RON.
- April 22, 2021: Kansas Governor Kelly signs RON legislation (SB106) into law.
- April 5, 2021: New Mexico Governor Lujan Grisham signed legislation (SB12) to allow remote online notarizations.
- March 31, 2021: West Virginia Governor Jim Justice signs legislation (SB469) to enable all remote notarizations.
- February 26, 2021: Wyoming Governor Mark Gordon signed legislation (SF29) that would enable remote notarizations within the state.